

A Professional Corporation

ROBERT L. DAMBROV, Esquire

ROBERT L. DAMBROV was born in Springfield, Massachusetts. He is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts and a 1972 graduate of Boston College Law School where he was a staff writer and editor for the Annual Survey of Massachusetts Law.

Attorney Dambrov is admitted to the Bar of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, to the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, to the First Circuit Court of Appeals, and to the United States Supreme Court. He is a member of the Hampden County Bar Association and the Massachusetts Bar Association, including its Labor and Employment Law section.

After completing his education, Attorney Dambrov returned to Springfield, Massachusetts. He has developed a comprehensive practice in Public Education Law, Labor and Employment Law, and Discrimination Law (as well as Social Security Disability Law, and Personal Injury Law) which includes practices in both the private and public sectors; before the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) and the National Mediation Board (NMB) and Massachusetts Labor Relations Commission regarding union representation/decertification elections and defense of unfair labor practice charges; the negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements including participation in grievance meetings and arbitration hearings; equal employment opportunity matters including discrimination complaints before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination (MCAD) and other related state agencies, and the Office of Federal Contract Compliance (OFCC); wage and hour issues before the U.S. Dept. of Labor and related state agencies; state unemployment compensation hearings; matters before the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and related state agencies; review and preparation of personnel policies and employee handbooks; conducting training sessions for supervisors, and performing risk management audits.

Robert is on the Board of Directors of the Jewish Geriatric Services, Inc. (a geriatric care campus containing a nursing home, an extended care facility, a home care agency, a physicians' practice, and an outpatient care and other related programs), the Willie Ross School for the Deaf, Temple Beth El, and the Employers Association of the Northeast, Inc. He is a member of the Rotary Club and a Paul Harris Scholarship Award recipient.

PRACTICE AREAS: Public Education Law; Labor and Employment Law; Discrimination Law; Social Security Disability Law; Personal Injury Law.